

Transcript for the sneak peek of “I Can Only Imagine”

“There’s something special about this project. ‘I Can Only Imagine’ is the best-selling Christian song of all time. But no one knows the story behind the song and how this song, that really touched the world, came to be. And it was written by this kid from Texas named Bart Millard.”

“We begin to hear more about Bart’s story. Just a very interesting, complex father/son story.”

“It’s all about the redemption quality of the whole thing. It’s the fact that if the gospel can change that dude, it can change anybody.”

“When I read THIS script, I was so excited. I had chills about seeing how this story is going to play out.”

“It’s interesting, it’s compelling, it’s real. It’s not just about ‘I Can Only Imagine’. It’s about Bart’s spiritual journey.”

“It’s very uplifting. About how one can really have a complete change in one’s heart. And how much you can move the earth with that. That doesn’t happen very often.”

“I honestly felt that this is the greatest Christian film I’ve ever seen.”

“This is a powerful story that is going to impact lives all over the world.”

“I want to make things right with you and me.”

 “Will I stand in your presence, or to my knees will I fall. Will I sing hallelujah. Will I be able to speak at all. I can only imagine. I can only imagine.”
